NAVIGATING THE TEEN YEARS:

We are in this together

Helping parents and caregivers of teens connect!

So your teen just rolled their eyes at you for the 100th time today? Yeah, we've been there, too. Welcome to the wonderful, chaotic world of parenting teens - where your negotiation skills are tested daily and Wi-Fi passwords are your only leverage! Join us for a parenting forum about strategies for successfully navigating the teen years.

We can't promise to make your teen less moody... but we can promise some laughs and plenty of "me too" moments.

Thursday, Oct. 24, 2024 ■ 6:30–8 p.m.
